

South Bay Rod & Gun Club Prospective Range Safety Officer (RSO) Program

Join the Range Officer Team - the 7 Step Process:

1. You must be 21 years of age or older and be a member of SBR&GC in good standing (dues paid and current).
2. Our program starts with your initiative, website request, email, or membership application inquiry.
3. Interview with our Chief Range Safety Officer (CRSO).
4. Review the Standard Operating Procedure (SOP).
5. Complete a short 34 question quiz (all answers are spelled out for you in the SOP)
6. Successfully completing three (3) training days at the range under the eye of one of our Lead Range Safety Officers (LRSO).
7. Then you are ready for assignment to at least one duty day a month on a day that is mutually agreeable.

Upon assignment, you are issued (at club expense) your own Orange Safety Vest, three (3) iron on club patches, a range key, your membership card stamped with the exclusive red "R.S.O." stamp, and a Guest Pass that entitles you to bring one friend/family member to the range and shoot on 2 occasions-free of charge each year (this is a $50 value). In addition, qualified Range Officers receives 2 free dinner tickets to the Annual Club Banquet in February and one free ticket for a chance for a free gun at the banquet (for qualified Range Officers only).

As an added benefit our club will pay for your attendance at an NRA Range Safety Officer Certification class and the cost of your bi-annual NRA certification renewal. This certification entitles you to receive and wear the exclusive "NRA Certified Range Safety Officer" patch on your Orange vest.

A special added value is your MEMBERSHIP dues are waived after successful completion of (1) year of service as a Range Officer. That's right, FREE MEMBERSHIP. Life member Range Officers receive a membership voucher that can be used for family or friends.

A special added benefit for qualified "off duty" Range Officers only is the privilege to open an unused range without an "on duty" range officer present. Just sign in at the main range, show your membership card with the red "R.S.O." stamp and you are good to go shoot.

We need you. The club needs you. To start the process please contact Tom Schulte, Chief Range Safety Officer at: CRSO@SBRGC.ORG or (619)458-1962
